

I support the FCC in denying the request from Bellsouth. Regulation is necessary to assure fairness in rates and services to all level of consumers especially the independant ISP's and their customers.
Thank You!